

Interpretive Specialist (3-year term position)

Oak Hammock Marsh (near Stonewall, MB)

The Opportunity

The award winning Oak Hammock Marsh Interpretive Centre is looking for an enthusiastic and energetic Interpretive Specialist who will be responsible for the delivery of wetland education programs to students, public, and educators.

Reporting to the Manager of Interpretive Centre Operations, you will lead the “Caring for our Watersheds” youth engagement program, which includes delivering student and educator workshops and mentoring students (for both project development and implementation). This will require travel to various communities across Manitoba. You will also coordinate the camp program.

You are innovative, creative and welcome the challenge to develop and ensure the delivery of high quality education programs. You are a flexible, reliable team player willing to pick up other duties as assigned and work evenings and weekends when necessary. Your strong presentation skills will enable you to communicate the value of wetlands and conservation in an interesting and educational way.

Your minimum two years directly related experience will make you the ideal candidate for this three-year term position, which is located at Oak Hammock Marsh, near Stonewall, Manitoba.

Requirements

- Post-secondary education with a focus on education, wildlife/wetland biology, ecology, natural history or related field
- Previous experience developing/delivering youth programs and/or educator workshops
- Strong communication, project management, time management and organizational skills.
- Experience with the Microsoft Office suite of programs.
- Enthusiasm for the outdoors, wildlife and environmental conservation
- Energetic and love working with children and the public
- Possess a valid driver’s license and have access to a reliable vehicle
- Valid first aid training would be an asset

How to Apply

If you are qualified and interested in this opportunity, please submit your cover letter (including salary expectations) and resumé for confidential consideration to the attention of:
