Greetings!

Welcome to the Oak Hammock Marsh Interpretive Centre Newsletter. Here are some upcoming and noteworthy events happening this month.

Birding Hour - Bird Mating

April 8 - 1 p.m.

Do birds mate for life?

Join us as we explore the various bird breeding strategies with our resident Naturalist, Paula Grief. This workshop is part of our monthly Birding Hour series.

Pre-registration is required. Workshop fee is $6 for members and $14 for non-members.

April 15 - 1 p.m.

Did you know the original marshmallow comes from a common marsh plant?

Join us for an old fashioned marshmallow roast on an open fire. Learn about the wetland plant that was roasted to produce a similarly sweet sticky treat.

For more informationAstronomy Night - Telescopes

April 19 - 8 p.m.

From Galileo's great inspirations to the Hubble's staggering discoveries, the telescope has expanded our understanding of the cosmos beyond what ancient civilizations could have imagined.

Learn what different telescopes have to offer and find out what equipment best suits your needs.

A special theatre presentation will be followed by a stargazing session from the rooftop observation deck of the Oak Hammock Marsh Interpretive Centre.

$5 for members and $10 for non-members

For more informationEarth Day

April 22

Take action to support wetlands on this important day! Participate in a cache-in trash-out walk by collecting garbage as you geocache. Join us for an "un-nature" trail game to help recognize the difference between human-made and natural objects. Learn how the Centre composts by joining a guided tour.

For more informationVolunteer Appreciation Day

April 25 - 6 to 8 p.m.

Volunteers are a key part of our organization. An appreciation BBQ is being held at the Centre to celebrate the important work they do.

For more informationHike the Dike

April 29 - 1 to 2 p.m.

Oak Hammock Marsh is home to 32 km of trails. Join an interpreter for a guided hike of the rough and rugged outer trails in the lesser seen parts the marsh!

Pre-registration required. Fees:

members $6, non-members $14.
